Suburani Chapters 1-2: Grammar -- Answer key

Name: _____

Present active: endings and English pronouns

Person	Singular	Plural
1st	-ō = I	-mus = we
2nd	-s = you	-tis = you (plural)
3rd	-t = he/she/it	-nt = they

Conjugation identifiers

Conjugation	1st singular	Infinitive	Example in notes
1st	-ō	-āre	labōrō
2nd	-eō	-ēre	videō
3rd	-ō	-ere	legō
3rd -iō	-iō	-ere	Not listed
4th	-iō	-īre	dormīs

Noun endings: singular

Declension	Nominative	Accusative
1st declension feminine	-a	-am
2nd declension masculine	-us / -er	-um
3rd declension masculine/feminine	varies	-em

Third-declension nominative singular

-er, -or, -is, -x, -ō, -ns

Grammar review

1. Which grammar term means: an action happening now or regularly? Present tense
2. Which grammar term means: whether the subject is speaking, being spoken to, or being spoken about? Person
3. Which grammar term means: the speaker? 1st person
4. Which grammar term means: the person being spoken to? 2nd person
5. Which grammar term means: someone or something being spoken about? 3rd person
6. Which grammar term means: one? Singular
7. Which grammar term means: more than one? Plural
8. Which grammar term means: subject; predicate nominative? Nominative case
9. Which grammar term means: direct object? Accusative case

Macrons count. The conjugation columns ask for identifying endings, not full conjugations.